"Those Were the Days"

Those were the days, my friends
We thought they'd never end;
We'd sing and dance forever and a day.
We'd live the life we choose;
We'd fight and never lose
For we were young and sure to have our way.

Once upon a time there was a tavern;
Where we used to raise a glass or two.
Remember how we'd laugh away the hours,
And dream of all the great things we would do?

Just tonight I stood before the tavern;
Nothing seemed the way it used to be.
In the glass I saw a strange reflection;
Was that lonely fellow really me?

Through the door there came familiar laughter;
I saw your face and heard you call my name.
All my friends were older but no wiser;
For in our hearts the dreams were still the same.

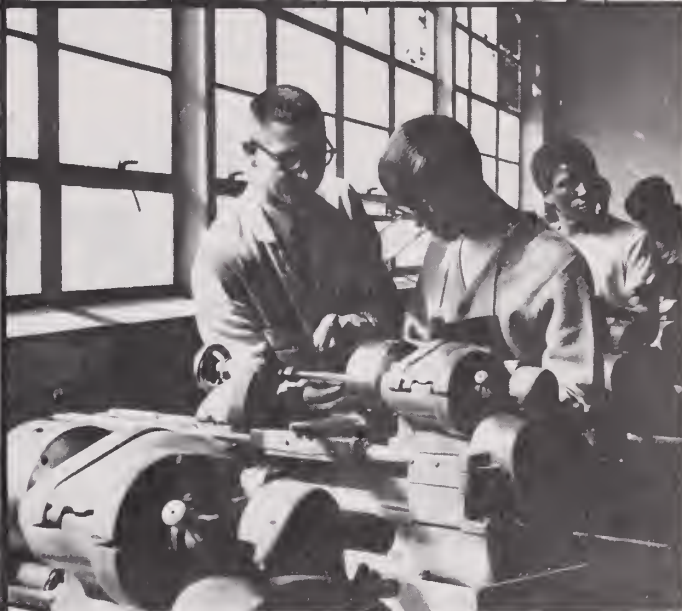

“Those were the days, my friends . . .”

"On Being a High School Senior"

dull days of useless comings and goings,
false smiles,
slow wasted hours:
these blaspheme the soft spring breeze
that just now begins to blow
so much time to spare
that daydreams don't dare
to be enough for me
i need more:
things like no walls and narrow halls
or clocks and bells
to tell me when to go
but things that let me live as sunrays do;
dancing through the air
bound by no wall of warning words,
not bound by anything at all except the darkness of the night
after the sun has gone . . .

What is turned on when we're turned on
and gone when we're turned off,
and when it's gone, there's nothing left
but a shell—
the sound and shape and color,
without meaning.
Years and years from now
when we look back
the sound and shape and color
will be gone
and all that will be left is the soul—
what lived within and made it real and was the reason why.
Here,
with introspective camera,
we've tried to find the soul
in the shell
in the year.

Sincerely,
KRABBA staff

Acknowledgments

The 1970 KRABBA is the product of many hours of generously volunteered work by the staff and extra special care by our publishers. Their efforts are largely unsung until the book arrives, yet their work comprises the only permanent record of this year and will remain a tribute to their efforts. This book is dedicated to the student body for their enjoyment and reflects the events that comprised the past year at Hampton High School. We, the staff, wish to thank everyone responsible for the publication of this year's KRABBA, and especially the following for their invaluable aid:

NEWPORT NEWS. WE'VE LAUNCHED MORE THAN 500 SHIPS.

But wait 'til you see our encore. When we started out in 1886, we were just a small ship repair yard. We named the company Newport News. Because we were proud to be doing business here.

Today we're the largest shipyard in the world. And we're still proud to call ourselves Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. Because a lot of the people who helped put us where we are today come from right here on the Virginia Peninsula.

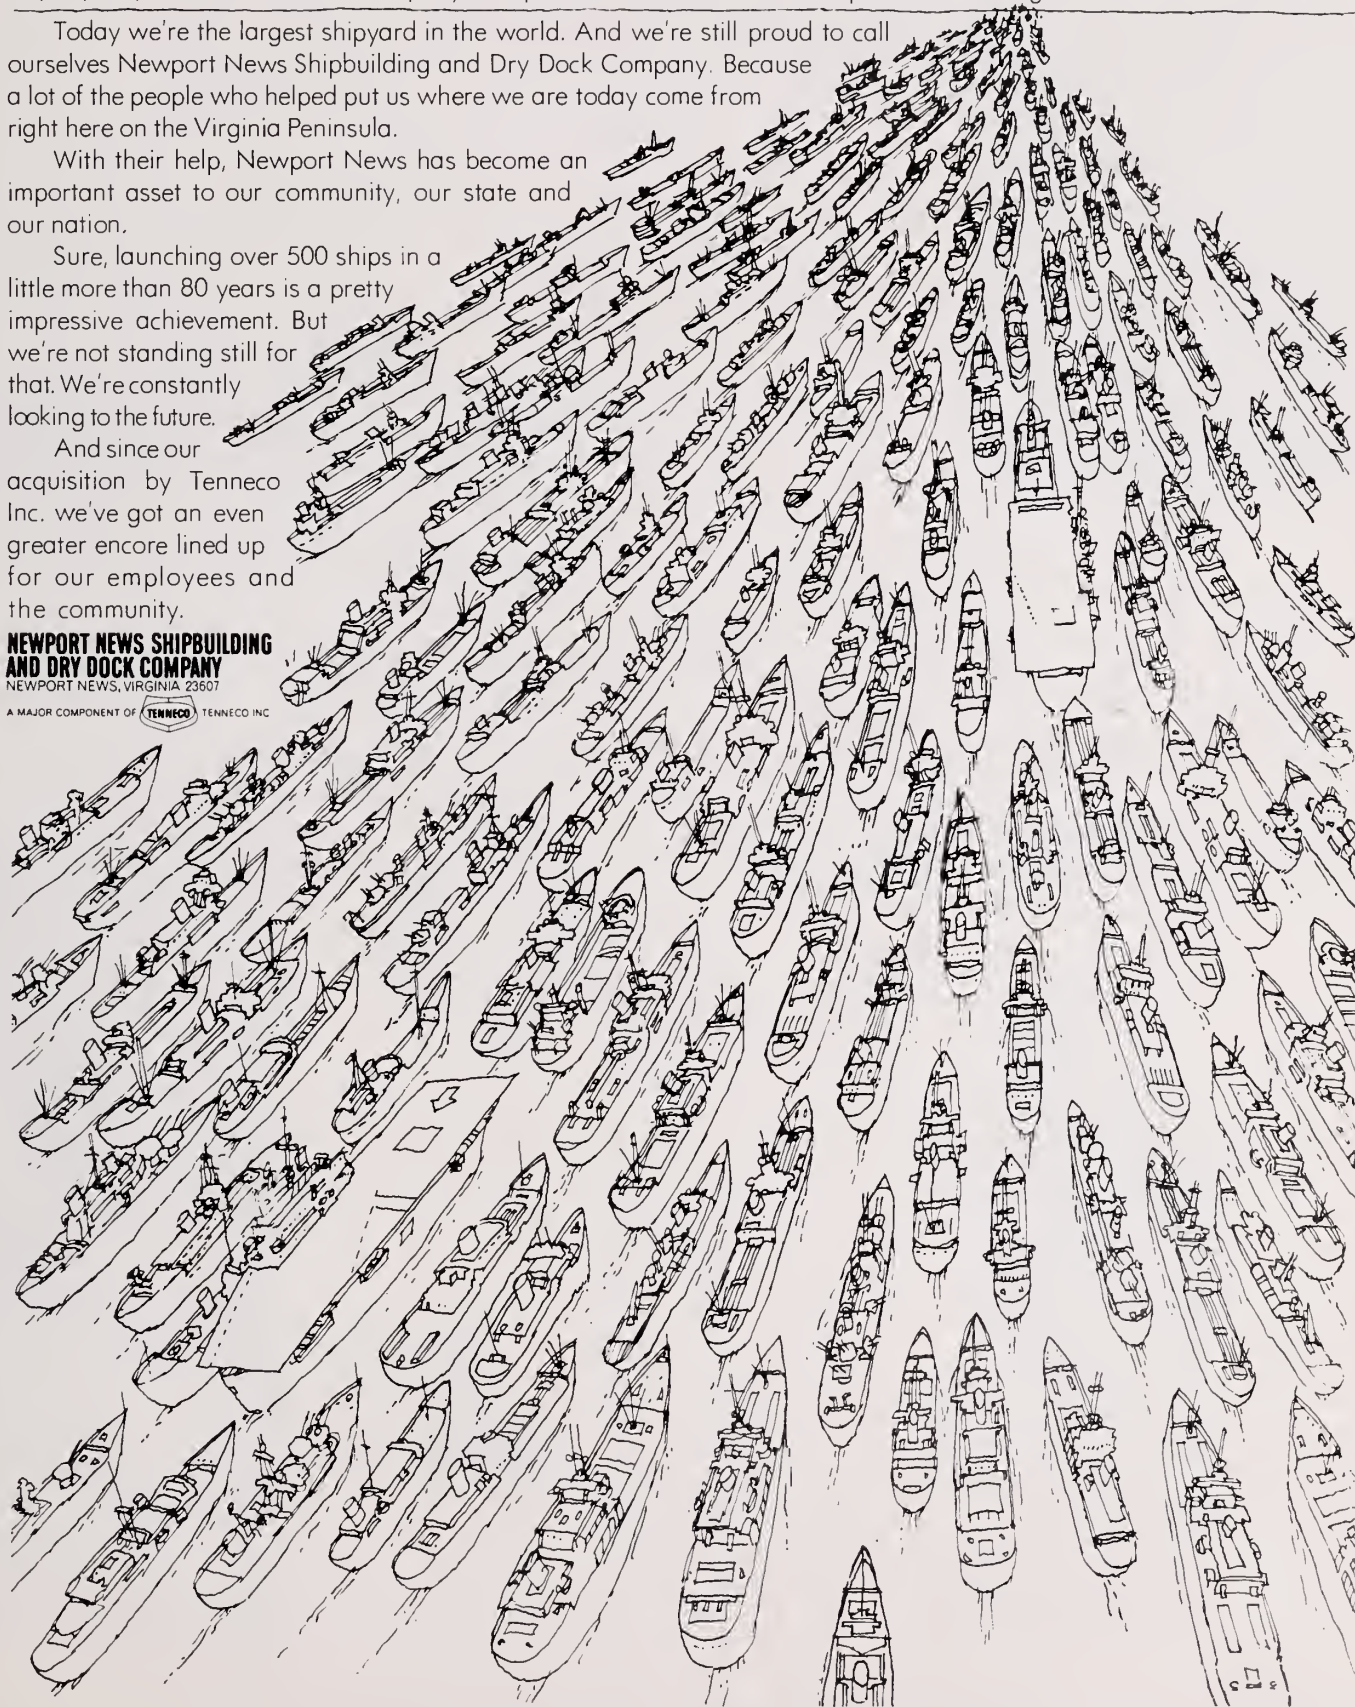

With their help, Newport News has become an important asset to our community, our state and our nation.

Sure, launching over 500 ships in a little more than 80 years is a pretty impressive achievement. But we're not standing still for that. We're constantly looking to the future.

And since our acquisition by Tenneco Inc. we've got an even greater encore lined up for our employees and the community.
